

MORE DESERTERS.

Seventy-Two People Leave the Carnegie Works.

ALL COOKS AND WAITERS.

The Deserters Greeted With Cheers by the Locked-Out Men—An Agreement Reached Between the Manufacturers and the Amalgamated Association Upon the Wage Scale.

HOMESTEAD, Pa., Aug. 11.—Seventy-two cooks and waiters came out of the Carnegie steel works yesterday evening. As they marched down Eighth avenue the deserters were cheered by the strikers, their wives and children. The trouble began in the mill in the morning when J. A. Rayborn, who entered into a contract with the company several weeks ago to furnish meats for 300 men, became involved in a dispute with another contractor in the same line of business.

Superintendent Potter was called upon to act as arbiter. He decided against Rayborn, whereupon the latter decided to throw up his contract. He went to the dining hall over which he has supervision and began making out his accounts, fixing up the time of the men in his employ, etc. While thus engaged Rayborn was waited upon by five members of the Carnegie special police force under command of Captain Newton. The latter ordered Rayborn to leave the place, but he refused to comply. The officers then placed him under arrest, and conducted him to a little brick building on the river bank, where they locked him up. He was kept a prisoner for over two hours.

In the meantime the seventy-two waiters and cooks employed by Rayborn, learning what had taken place, quit work. They packed their valises, and when their employer was released from the company's prison his men fell in line and followed Rayborn to the office, where he drew $1,224. This was given to him mostly in bills of large denominations, making it impossible for him to pay off his men on account of a lack of change. Rayborn then led the blacks and whites down to Homestead to the strikers' headquarters, where he paid them, after which they were accompanied to the depot by fully 500 men, women and boys, who looked upon the deserters as real flesh and blood heroes.

After getting rid of his men, Rayborn, accompanied by Constable Stewart, went to Rankin where he preferred charges before Squire Glunt against Special Officers Newton, Powers, Smith and two others for assault and battery and false arrest. Constables Stewart and Gingham soon had the five special officers under arrest. One of them was permitted to depart after promising to appear for a hearing today. The other four were taken before Squire Glunt, given a preliminary hearing and in default of bail were committed to the Pittsburg jail.

The strikers are jubilant, being under the impression that the departure of so many cooks and waiters will be a serious blow to the company. But Superintendent Potter looks at the matter in a different light. He says the places of the men who left yesterday can be filled inside of twenty-four hours, and that the "sympathetic" strike of waiters and cooks will have no material effect or subject the company to no inconvenience.

Nearly one hundred new men, the greater part of them being machinists and practical steel workers, came to the works yesterday. Inside the mill everything seems to be running smoothly, and Superintendent Potter reiterates the statement that the work being done by the non-unionists is perfectly satisfactory, and that so far as the firm is concerned the strike is a thing of the past.

A non-union man who left the mill yesterday evening said: "I do not think there are over 650 men now at work for the Carnegie Steel company." He further stated that over 400 men have deserted since last Saturday, exclusive of the cooks and waiters, who came out yesterday afternoon.

At last night's meeting of the advisory committee, the treasurer reported that the men who came from the works yesterday had contributed $40 to the relief fund.

WESTERN IRON SCALE.

An Agreement Between the Manufacturers and the Amalgamated Association.

PITTSBURG, Aug. 11.—The western iron scale of the Amalgamated Association of Iron and Steel Workers was agreed upon yesterday evening and fixed for the coming year, by the conference committees representing the iron manufacturers and the Amalgamated association. The base of the scale agreed upon remains at $3.50 per ton for boiling iron, but in the finishing department a sweep-reduction of 10 per cent. was agreed upon. The settlement was arrived at by concessions on both sides. The manufacturers conceded the $5.50 rate for puddling. Their demand was for a $4.50 rate.

The Amalgamated committee conceded to the manufacturers the reduction asked in the finishing departments. The mills that have already signed the scale, except the sheet and wire rod mills will be affected by the agreement arrived at last night, as they had all signed the scale subject to the conditions of final settlement. In all about 18,000 men are affected by the agreement. The iron scale for the entire country is now settled except in the Mahoning and Shenango valleys. The settlement occurs after an idleness of forty-one days. Yesterday's meeting was the sixteenth session of the conference committee on the wage question and lasted until 9 o'clock last night.

Window Glass Scale Settled.

PITTSBURG, Aug. 11.—The window glass scale is settled and all of the factories will start up either Sept. 24 or Oct. 1. The wage committees of manufacturers and workers met in the afternoon and adopted last year's scale with a few slight changes. The manufacturers will meet in Columbus, O., next week to decide when a start will be made.

KNIGHTS TEMPLAR.

Doings of the Grand Encampment in Denver.

DENVER, Aug. 11.—The grand encampment did a big day's work yesterday. Sir G. C. Conner was the happiest Templar in town when it was completed, for the rituals of the Red Cross and order of the Temple degree, as reported from the ritual committee, were unanimously adopted. The same ritual for Knights Templar work will now be the same in every commandery in the United States. It was 6 o'clock last night before the encampment adjourned.

The election of officers will be the first matter to be disposed of today. At this order of business no one but members of the encampment will be allowed to be present. No nominations are made under Templar law, so no ticket is in the field. There does not seem to be any doubt but that Hon. Hugh McCurdy, deputy grand master will be called upon to be Grand Master Gobin's successor. It is probable that the place for holding the next triennial convocation will also be decided upon today. Friends of Boston and Cincinnati are vigorously pushing the claims of their favorite cities. The committee on jurisprudence reported yesterday. Its suggestions were acted upon.

Several thousand people witnessed the exhibition drill yesterday at River Front park. It had been decided by Grand Master Gobin that there could be no competitive drill, so only the exhibition was permitted. Two commanderies entered, California No. 1 and St. Bernard No. 2, of Chicago. The California knights were mounted on black horses and wore black uniforms with silver trimmings. There were twenty-five men in line and their appearance elicited frequent applause. They were preceded by six trumpeters and the bugler sergeant of the Seventh United States cavalry.

The Sir Knights were under command of R. P. Hurlburg, C. G. This commandery drilled first for thirty minutes, cavalry tactics, modified to suit formations in sets of three, were used. The formations from circles to column crosses, diamonds and steady marching, were well executed and frequently applauded. The horses used had never before drilled, but all things considered, they acted very well.

The St. Bernard commandery marched into the arena with the George W. Cook drum corps at their head. They entered twenty-five swords and drilled on foot, Templar tactics. The first movement of the mounted drill were simple formations from column to platoon. The wheels were executed in good alignment, and after marching in phalanx, a circle was formed. Playing a lively quickstep the buglers and ladies marched in and formed in skirmish inside the circle. The famous yell was given then three times, it is "California, California, California Commandery, No. 1, K. T., hurrah, hurrah, hurrah."

St. Bernard commandery then marched forward in single rank formation, not a button out of line. The column formation could not be excelled. Equal distances between the marching sets were preserved and the platoons wheeled perfectly.

No prizes will be given, but the chamber of commerce will give a handsome present to each commandery.

THE CHINESE MINISTER

May be Recalled on Account of "Count" Mitkiewicz.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 11.—The early recall of the Chinese minister, which is predicted, is said to be a result of the negotiations of the famous "Count" Mitkiewicz to obtain Chinese concessions. Mitkiewicz, who is a Russian adventurer, obtained concessions for banking and telephone companies from the Chinese government some years ago, but they were revoked because he was found to be irresponsible. Mitkiewicz has been charged frequently with dishonesty, and only a few weeks ago the New York Sun devoted nearly a page to an expose of him. Mr. Tsui, the present minister from China has been coquetting with Mitkiewicz who has made capital of his renewed intimacy at the legation. The emperor, it is said, is displeased with this, and hence has ordered Tsui's recall.

Great Icebergs.

NEW YORK, Aug. 11.—Captain Bray, of the ship New City, of St. John, N. B., reached this port Tuesday from Taltal. He stated that the vessel rounded Cape Horn on June 4, and that three days after she fell in with a terrific snow "squall" that lasted twenty-nine hours. On June 20, at 2 p. m., the log records, two immense icebergs were sighted. One appeared to be 900 feet high. Three hours later there were nine in sight. During that night thirteen in all were sighted. At daybreak nineteen were counted from the masthead. One of these was the biggest ever seen in these latitudes. It was ten miles long and 150 feet high.

Deadly Duel.

SILVER CITY, N. M., Aug. 11.—On Saturday at a mining camp called Hill, forty miles southwest of here, James Patterson, a mine owner, had a quarrel with a Mexican in his employ and was fatally shot by him. Before he died Patterson killed the Mexican.

Taken to the Penitentiary.

MEMPHIS, Aug. 11.—H. Clay King was secretly taken out of the city at 5:30 o'clock via the Chesapeake and Ohio road by the sheriff, who will convey him to Nashville by a devious route. It was feared an attempt would be made to lynch him.

DISASTERS AT SEA.

Over One Hundred Lives Lost in a Collision.

NEARLY ALL SWEDISH FIBES.

Two Coasting Steamers Run Together Off the Port of Helsingfors, the Capital of Finland—Other Foreign Dispatches.

LONDON, Aug. 11.—Fuller details of the collision, attended by great loss of life, between steamers near the coast of Finland, show that two coasting steamers, the Ajax and the Runeberg, collided off the port of Helsingfors, capital of Finland, on Monday last. The Ajax was loaded with people from Helsingfors, who were out for a Sunday sail. The Runeberg was in the coasting business.

The Ajax had started out on Sunday and been delayed on the return by a heavy fog. The captain concluded to proceed slowly into port and was not at high speed when the collision occurred. The Runeberg, owing to the fog, had no notice of the approach of the Ajax and was going at ordinary speed. The Runeberg struck the Ajax near the center, shattering that steamer so that the water flowed in in a torrent.

The passengers on the Ajax were nearly all Swedish Finns. They behaved with notable courage in the awful situation. The men pushed the women and children to the life buoys thrown out by the Runeberg, and took their chances at struggling in the water. There was no time to lower boats as the Ajax sank almost instantly, carrying down nearly one hundred persons. The Runeberg was badly injured and could not have remained afloat long, but her captain stood by as long as possible to save all that he could of the Ajax passengers and crew. Eighty-six persons are missing and thirty-nine bodies have been recovered.

Another Collision.

LONDON, Aug. 11.—The steamship Saale, Captain Richter, of the North German Lloyd, arrived at Southampton yesterday evening with the crew of the Norwegian bark Tordenskjold, with which she collided on Aug. 4. The collision occurred at 7 o'clock in the evening. For three hours the Saale had been running in a fog and at half speed. Suddenly Captain Richter, who was on the bridge, saw the bark on the starboard side and coming on in such a course as to strike the steamship on the bow. He turned the Saale bow on, and a moment later the steamship crashed through the bow of the bark.

The Saale's engines were reversed immediately but the bark drifted off and was lost to view before the steamship could be stopped. Boats were lowered and manned, and within five minutes found the Tordenskjold filling rapidly. The captain and crew of seventeen were taken off. A few minutes later the bark sank out of sight. On the Saale there was a panic among the passengers, most of whom were in the main cabin. As soon as they felt the shock of the collision all ran on deck, men and women coming up half dressed from their state rooms. The officers went around assuring all that the Saale had suffered no injury and that the peril had been happily averted by the collision.

Perfect order was restored before the boats returned with the crew of the bark. An examination of the steamship was made and it was found that she was practically uninjured. This fact was announced to the passengers and most of them then went to bed for the night. Captain Ellertsen, of the Tordenskjold, says that although he was on deck just before and during the collision, he did not hear the Saale's foghorn and knew nothing of his danger until the Saale seemed almost within arm's length. The bark is owned in Arendal, he says, and was carrying a cargo of stout and ginger ale from Dublin to New York.

The cabin passengers on the Saale praise the behavior of the officers and crew throughout the excitement attendant upon the collision. On the evening of Aug. 5, they held a meeting and signed a memorial to Captain Richter, thanking him for his gallant behavior and commending his presence of mind in turning the Saale's bow on so that the bark was prevented from striking her in the side.

Pleasure Boat Run Down.

BERLIN, Aug. 11.—Near Tonnensand, on the Elbe, yesterday, a steamer ran into a pleasure boat, smashing the boat, which sank immediately. Three of the persons who were in the pleasure boat were drowned although the steamer stopped at once and did all it could to save them.

Five Lives Lost by a Landslide.

VIENNA, Aug. 11.—At Scharnitz, a village and pass in the Tyrol, ten miles northwest of Innsbruck, a landslide caused the death of five persons who were overwhelmed beneath the mass of rock and earth which came thundering down from a mountain.

Our Consul Confesses.

COPENHAGEN, Aug. 11.—American Consul H. B. Ryder has confessed that he is guilty of all the embezzlements of which he is accused by the authorities, and that he induced his wife to make false statements in his behalf.

Righted to Death.

SCRANTON, Pa., Aug. 11.—A heavy thunderstorm passed over this city yesterday during which Mrs. M. Donloe, fifty-four years old, was so badly frightened by the lightning that she died in convulsions.

Short Strike.

NEW HAVEN, Aug. 11.—The employees of the Whitney railroad went on a strike Tuesday at 2 p. m. because of a proposed change of pay day. The matter was adjusted and they resumed work at 6:30.

GIANT AND MIDGET MARRIED.

He Nearly Eight Feet Tall, and She Only Twenty-Two Inches.

BOLIVAR, Mo., Aug. 11.—Extremes met in this city Tuesday morning when the Texas giant, Colonel Powell, seven feet eight inches in height, married pretty Henrietta Mority, the midget maiden, who has just reached an attitude of twenty-two inches.

The couple have been the great attraction with a circus showing in this section of this state for some weeks past. It had been evident to the attaches of the show for a long time past that the giant was badly smitten with the midget, while she looked up adoringly at him, and doubtless often wondered what the temperature must be up near the top of the center pole.

Finally the swain, whose sighs oftentimes bugged the canvas as though a hurricane was raging outside, determined to make the lovely and lilliputian Henrietta his own for all time; so quietly taking a clergyman into his confidence the hour was set, and Tuesday morning the gallant giant stole his fairy bride from beneath her mother's wing, hid him to the parson and the words were quickly spoken which made them man and wife.

Mrs. Mority, Powell's mother-in-law, raised a lively scene when she heard that her daughter had married the giant and for a time it looked as though Powell would lose his bride and the circus its chief attraction. Finally the manager of the show came to the rescue, painted in glowing words the greater attraction the couple would be as man and wife, raised their salaries and the show went on with Colonel and Mrs. Powell, the Texas giant and his midget wife, billed in letters twelve inches long.

DEARTH OF YOUNG MEN.

"Special Terms" Offered at Summer Resorts if They Will Only Come.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 11.—The dearth of young men at the summer resorts has been recognized in an amusing way by some of the hotel keepers this season. One of them, the owner of a resort on the Chesapeake and Ohio road, advertises in Washington that he will give "special terms" to young men. One of the big railroads running out of this city has done even better. It has made a rate from Washington to a summer resort which it owns, including a journey of nearly 175 miles and board for five days at one of the best hotels in the country, at a net cost of $10. It is almost cheaper than staying in Washington. But the rate is for young men only. Married men and the female members of their families are not included in it. These special rates are intended to bring out some of the army at dancing young men in the departments at Washington who can not afford to take expensive vacation trips, and who have been going every summer to the Virginia summer resorts not far from Washington. Every one in Virginia is poor, and they feel thoroughly at home there.

BOLTS AND BARS

Not Strong Enough to Hold a Desperate Lunatic.

LAWRENCEBURG, Ind., Aug. 11.—Word was received yesterday from the county house that Wolley, the crazy man placed there, had escaped. He was locked in a second-story room, and breaking a hole in the ceiling large enough to creep through, swung himself to a garret room and climbed through a window down the lightning rod. The rod kept breaking with the man's weight, but he still grabbed it as he fell, until he reached the ground and made his escape.

He is a dangerous lunatic to be roaming the country at large, and has been to the asylum three different times and released as incurable. The officers always have great trouble in taking him, as he is usually armed with a revolver and knives. Wolley is the man who made such a desperate attempt to murder his mother last week.

Boot and Shoe Dealer Assigns.

INDIANAPOLIS, Aug. 11.—Robert Kersner, a boot and shoe dealer, has made an assignment. He turns over his stock of goods, fixtures, insurance policies, etc., as well as two lots in Arsenal Heights addition and his household goods at 241 North Delaware street, property amounting to $6,400. The trustee took possession of the store and has closed it up while taking an inventory. The liabilities and assets are about the same.

Trampled on by a Horse.

MANCHESTER, O., Aug. 11.—Samuel Matthews, a well-to-do young farmer, living about three miles west of this place, met with a very serious accident. He was riding his horse to pasture and the animal became frightened and threw him. The horse trampled upon him, and when found, about three hours later, he was unconscious and bleeding internally. He is in a very critical condition and his recovery is doubtful.

Locked Up for Horse Stealing.

CHEYENNE, Wyo., Aug. 11.—Last night the well known wealthy ranchman, Fred Daughoff, was taken to the county jail on a charge of horse stealing. It is charged that he had been changing brands on horses, and then shipping them to various points in the west to be sold. He was arrested at Clintonville, Wis., with a lot of horses alleged to have been stolen.

A Young Girl's Eyes Blown Out.

BLOODSHED FEARED.

Georgia Troops Called Out to Suppress a Mob.

THE WAR IS BETWEEN RACES.

Efforts Made to Release Two White Men Arrested on the Charge of Killing a Negro—Two Companies of Troops Already on the Field and Probably More Will Be Needed.

JESSUP, Ga., Aug. 11.—Two companies of military are on duty here as a result of the efforts of a mob of whites to release Charles Warren and Barlow Austin, two white railroad engineers, from custody. The two men are charged along with Henry Little, another white man, with murdering Isaac Flowers, in July.

Flowers was shot in his cabin and then placed on the railroad track with a placard on his coat, stating that all other negroes would be treated likewise. Sheriff John Ellis, of Appling, ran down clues which pointed to eight white men as the murderers. Warren and Austin were arrested by the sheriff and three deputies who were armed with Winchester. A mob at once besieged them in the depot and telegrams were sent for aid. The governor ordered troops to the scene from Brunswick.

On their arrival an effort was made to place the prisoners on the train. Before this could be done, it was necessary to nearly brain several of the mob with the butt ends of muskets. Great excitement prevails and the military will be kept here in readiness for any trouble on Friday, when the prisoners will be brought back for trial, and other arrests of prominent white men who are believed to be members of the Jessup Kuklux will be made.

The negroes in the town and vicinity have gone into the woods through fear of personal violence. The friends of the arrested parties are alarmed and vow vengeance. Conservative white citizens have armed themselves and will assist the military in protecting the negroes. If necessary, the governor will order more companies out.

IRON HALL.

Subpoenas Served on the Officers and Members of the Executive Committee.

INDIANAPOLIS, Aug. 11.—The plaintiffs in the suit for a receiver for the Order of the Iron Hall yesterday had subpoenas served on the officers and members of the executive committee. The defense claims that the Bank of Philadelphia, of which Supreme Justice Somerby is an officer, has about $725,000 of the order's money.

The plaintiffs claim that the bank is insolvent, that as soon as a receiver is appointed here the first movement will be to take charge of the bank and save as much of the order's money as possible; that the superintendent of banking is ready to close the institution, and that the order's funds are deposited in the name of Supreme Cashier Davis, they can not be withdrawn by any one. The allegation is made that Somerby expended large sums on state legislators without authority from any board.

PECULIAR DISEASE.

Residents of a New York Village Alarmed Over Its Prevalence.

NEW YORK, Aug. 11.—A special to the press from New Brunswick, N. J., says: The residents of Helmetta, a thriving village on the Amboy division of the Pennsylvania railroad, about ten miles from this city, are alarmed over an epidemic which is prevailing there.

The disease is of a peculiar character, and twenty deaths have resulted in less than a week. It is much like dysentery but far more severe. Fears that it is Russian cholera are entertained by the physicians, who seem unable to check its ravages. The disease first made its appearance in a family of Russian Jews.

After the Cooley Gang.

UNIONTOWN, Pa., Aug. 11.—Yesterday Sheriff McCormick selected a party of twelve trusty men, armed each with a Winchester rifle, and sent them into those parts of Fayette county in which the notorious Cooley gang most frequently operate. The posse have strict orders to let no one escape them, and are now on their way to capture or conquer the outlaws. Nothing has been heard of the Cooley gang since last Monday, at which time they were at Cool Spring.

Railroad Official Drowned.

LOGANSPORT, Ind., Aug. 11.—Fred Whitfield, a baggage man on the Pittsburg, Cincinnati, Chicago and St. Louis railroad, was attacked by cramps while bathing in a mill race here last night and was drowned. A number of companions were with him, but he gave no cry for help, and in the darkness his struggles were unobserved. He leaves a wife and one daughter.

JEFFERSONVILLE, Ind., Aug. 11.—William Keller, a saloon keeper of this city, and until recently a member of Myrtle lodge, No. 19, Knights of Pythias, was expelled from the lodge on account of being a saloon keeper. He will sue the order for $10,000 damages.

WEATHER INDICATIONS.

Fair, preceded by showers; cooler Thursday morning; followed by rising temperature; winds shifting to south.

The people of Maysville have invested hundreds of dollars in town lots elsewhere, but they hesitate to buy even one lot here at home to aid in bringing a big stove foundry to Maysville.

GENERAL VAN WYCK, formerly a Republican member of the U. S. Senate, is the People's party nominee for Governor in Nebraska. You needn't be surprised if the Democrats capture the electoral vote of that State next November.

A REPUBLICAN paper says the "announcement that Senator Blaine is to take the stump for the G. O. P. ticket will electrify the party from Maine to California." Well, they need some one to electrify it. And there's no danger of its being overcharged.

NEARLY $100,000 worth of buildings are now being erected in a central Kentucky city. That indicates enterprise, but it is nothing to the enterprise displayed by Ballenger, the jeweler, in fitting up such a store as he now has. Don't fail to stop in and look over his stock of goods.

THE Democratic party is the party of economy, remarks the Louisville Post. The average annual per capita expense of the Government during the Garfield-Arthur administration was $9.73; during the Cleveland administration, $6.28, and during the Harrison administration, $7.53. This is the best basis upon which a computation can be made, and it shows the Democratic administration at a great advantage.

"He mocks the people who propose that the Government shall protect the rich, and that they in turn will care for the laboring poor. Any intermediary between the people and their Government, or the least delegation of the care and protection the Government owes the humblest citizen in the land, makes the boast of free institutions a glittering delusion, and the pretended boon of American citizenship a shameless imposition."—Grover Cleveland.

ADLAI STEVENSON peddled revolvers during the war among the Knights of the Golden Circle and the people of Illinois to be used in resisting the draft officers. Will some one please send this to a Bloomington, Ill., paper? It may want to deny it.—Public Ledger.

Why should any one go to the trouble of sending the above to Bloomington? Mr. Stevenson had denounced the statement a lie a day before you published it. And then you didn't have manhood enough to publish the denial of that other "campaign lie" you circulated a few weeks ago.

THE Pittsburg Post, in an article reviewing the legislation on the subject of pensions, shows that President Cleveland signed 215 more pension bills than were enacted during the whole of the twenty-four years of Republican rule previous to his administration. Under President Cleveland 1,825 pensions bills became laws, while there were but 1,610 passed during the administration of his predecessors. President Cleveland vetoed many private pension bills which were lobbied through Congress, but in doing so he, in each case, saved the pension list from becoming a roll of dishonor.

REPUBLICANS are making desperate attempts to cover up their billion-dollar record of profligacy by showing that the Democrats at the late session appropriated more money than the Republicans

KENTUCKY CROPS.

What the Weekly Report of the State Weather Service Says of the Prospect.

The temperature of the past week was considerably in excess of the normal for the season, while the amount of sunshine received was very near the average. As was the case for several weeks past, the rainfall was very unevenly distributed, and came mainly in the form of local thunder storms. These appear to have been much more frequent and heavier in the southern and western counties than elsewhere. In these, the precipitation was about normal, and in some places largely in excess of it. The counties bordering upon the Ohio river, and those in the central part of the State, received but little rain, except in a few cases where thunder storms brought heavy showers over very limited areas. On the 4th, a severe thunder storm, accompanied by high winds, created havoc among the crops of Whitley County, being especially destructive to corn, and on the 7th a similar storm caused serious damage to crops in Shelby County, where in places the rain was so heavy as to wash out many tobacco fields and completely ruin the crop.

Except in the sections reporting deficient rainfall, crops are in a generally promising condition. In these districts, however, they are commencing to be seriously affected by the drouth, the injury being most apparent to garden crops and grasses. Corn has not suffered much as yet, and from a very large portion of the State reports regarding it are of the most favorable character. Its prospects will be seriously impaired in many places unless abundant rains fall very soon. Unfavorable reports relative to the fruit crop continue to be received, and it is possible that the yield of all late varieties will be far below the average. Wheat threshing is about completed, and reports of the yield are favorable almost without exception.

In the western counties the tobacco crop is undoubtedly very promising, but in the eastern and central sections reports of its condition are not so favorable. In these districts it has suffered from lack of rain and the growth is very uneven. The Simpson County correspondent reports that the plants are growing up very slender, but that otherwise the crop looks well. Taking the State as a whole the crop may be said to be in an average condition, and with favorable weather conditions it may improve greatly before the close of the season.

GENERAL GEORGE B. HODGE.

Brief Sketch of the Life of a Former Citizen of Maysville.

Brief mention was made yesterday of the death of General George Baird Hodge at his home in Florida. Deceased was a citizen of this city for a number of years during the early part of his life. He was a son of William and Sarah (Baird) Hodge, and was born in Fleming County April 8, 1828. He came with his parents to Maysville, and was educated at the Maysville Seminary and at the Naval Academy at Annapolis, Md. He was midshipman and Acting-Lieutenant in the navy for nearly six years, and was aid to Commodore David Connor at the siege of Vera Cruz; made several voyages around the world and resigned in 1851. In 1853 he, at the age of twenty-five, made the race for Congress against the late Hon. R. H. Stanton, and was defeated. He studied law and was admitted to the bar and afterwards located in Newport, where he married Miss Ketura, daughter of Colonel J. W. Tibbatts, and granddaughter of General James Taylor. He was elected to the Kentucky Legislature in 1859, and was candidate for Elector for the State-at-Large on the Breckinridge ticket in 1860. He left the State in September, 1861; entered the Southern army as private under General Buckner; was a member of the "Provisional Government of Kentucky;" represented Kentucky in the Confederate Congress; was Captain and Assistant Adjutant General in Breckinridge's Division; was promoted Major for gallant conduct at Shiloh; participated in the battle of Chickamauga; commanded the district of East Louisiana and Mississippi at the close of the war; was Elector in 1872 on the Greeley ticket and President of the Electoral College; in 1873 was State Senator from Campbell County.

THEIR RELIGION FORBIDS,

Still No Trouble Is Anticipated in Taking the Chinese Photos.

NEW YORK, Aug. 11.—Stories of a rather misleading character have been published in some New York newspapers regarding the alleged dissatisfaction which the Chinese residents of this city and Brooklyn view certain provisions of the Chinese exclusion act, soon to be enforced in this city. Much stress has been laid upon the antagonistic feeling which the Chinamen are supposed to entertain for the provision in the act which requires that their photographs shall be appended to their certificates of registration.

It has been stated that the religion of the Chinese forbids the photographic reproduction of their countenances. The stories did not come out in the investigation of the matter made Tuesday. The bulk of the work of enforcing the act in this city will fall to the lot of General Michael Kerwin, internal revenue collector for the Second district, although Ferdinand Erdman, the internal revenue collector for the Third district, is also busily engaged in making preparations for a share of it. The blanks will probably not arrive from Washington before September. As soon as they come registration will begin. General Kerwin does not anticipate the slightest trouble in the enforcement of the law.

A New Fish Supply.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 11.—The United States fish commissioner, Colonel Marshall MacDonald, who has been personally supervising the work of the commission at its station at Woods Holl, Mass., has just returned to the station from a trip on the schooner Grampus, which has been making a search with the object of rediscovering the tile fish. The search resulted in the finding of one specimen on the grounds where they were first discovered. The investigation will be continued with a view to ascertaining their abundance and their general distribution. It is believed that the results will be satisfactory, and that a valuable fishery will be opened up to New England fishermen.

Kentucky Legislature May Adjourn.

FRANKFORT, Ky., Aug. 11.—Both houses of the general assembly have agreed upon a resolution to adjourn next Tuesday, Aug. 16, for a summer recess, and to reconvene Nov. 15. Upon reconvening it is expected that the body will remain in session till April, making the whole equal to more than one year, and the total cost of which will be close to $450,000.

Two Boys Drowned.

TRENTON, Aug. 11.—Edward and Willie Bennett, aged respectively seven and ten years, were drowned in a pond between this city and Bordentown. Their father, Frederick Bennett, a potter by trade, had taken the boys fishing. The younger stumbled into the pond and Willie dove into the water to rescue him. Both sank before their father, who was on the other side of the pond, could reach them.

$50 a Head.

TORONTO, Aug. 11.—There are many arrivals here of Chinese from British Columbia. Some of them remain here, but the larger number go west, and, it is said, they are smuggled into the United States by way of Sarnia and Windsor, the amount paid being $50 a head. It is stated that the Chinamen are fleeing from British Columbia to avoid smallpox.

The state constitution requires that the governor and lieutenant governor shall have been citizens of the United States for two years prior to their election.

Picking Out Thieves by Their Eyes.

The eye always indicates the character of the man. This is particularly true of thieves, for the expert detective can tell in almost every case whether or not a man is a thief by simply looking him squarely in the eye. A well known detective in speaking of this matter, said:

"Yes, I can pick out a thief every time. I can't tell you what it is that gives the man away except that it is the expression of the eye. In the first place, there are few thieves that will look you squarely in the eye unless they are obliged to do so. They will avoid your glance as long as they can, and even when they do face you and gaze steadily at you it is always with the same expression. Although their eyes may be wide open and the gaze apparently steady you will see, if you look closely, that there is something away back through the corner trying to avoid you. I have picked out numbers of thieves by this little dodging movement. I never saw a thief who was free from it."

"Everybody has met that man who resolutely refuses to meet a steady gaze for more than three or four seconds at a time. It is not fair to say that all such persons are dishonest. In many cases this peculiarity is a direct result of bashfulness. A little close observation will enable the observer to put persons in the class to which they belong. The man whose eye is almost shaped is almost always dishonest at heart, if not in overt act. The eyes of some of the most notorious thieves in the country are of this pattern, and the expression given the face by this sort of eye is very striking."—Pittsburg Press.

Eugene Sue's Vanity.

Notwithstanding the extraordinary literary success which he enjoyed when his works were the vogue, Eugene Sue posed much more as a man of fashion than a man of letters. After his dinner at the Cafe de Paris he would gravely stand on the steps smoking his cigar and listening to the conversation with an air of superiority without attempting to take part in it. His mind was supposed to be far away, devising schemes for the social and moral improvement of his fellow creatures. These philanthropic musings did not prevent him from paying a great deal of attention—too much perhaps—to his personal appearance, for even in those days of beaus, bucks and dandies, of Counts d'Orsay and others, men could not help thinking Eugene Sue overdressed.

He rarely appeared without spurs to his boots, and he would no more have done without a new pair of white kid gloves every evening than without his dinner. Other men, like Nestor de Roqueplan, Alfred de Musset and Major Fraser, did not mind having their gloves cleaned, though the process was not so perfect as it is now. Eugene Sue averred that the smell of cleaned gloves made him ill. The unhappy man finally fell into poverty, was quietly cashiered from his fashionable clubs and died in obscurity.—Chicago Post.

Black Costumes in Paris.

There's a black rage in Paris; it's the style to look as if you were in light mourning there, whether it's so or not. All the toilets one sees are black of some description or black and white—that is, all but the hats. A woman may go out deeply and solemnly robed in a garment that one would surely suppose to be worn as a token of grief until one's eyes reached the headgear, when its light and brilliant coloring would immediately dispel the effect. They're not a bit consistent in gay Paris, else one might think they had at last reached a period of sobriety and common sense; that they had concluded to be more like their English sisters and settle down in quieter and more subdued colors. But when a woman wears a black gown and a hat containing several colors of the rainbow in bright display there is little foundation for the belief, after all.—Paris Letter.

OUR TIGER

Is a jolly old fellow and has an amiable mission in life. He keeps down the man who would extort high prices, and by so doing beats Tammany's famous tiger as a public benefactor.

He is Not a Politician, although he has a policy of his own. Call and see what he has done in prices on a special line of

Rockers,

Dining Chairs, Sideboards

and everything in the FURNITURE line. He conducts his campaign on the bed-rock platform.
